

CHRIST JESUS IS OUR ALL IN ALL, PART 2 (COLOSSIANS 1-3)

We're going to be revisiting our topic of Christ Jesus being our All in all, for two reasons. 1. The first being, last week we were rudely interrupted by a steady, torrent of rain. Nevertheless, praise the Lord! We still had a blessed time in our praise and worship, in the Word (we got through chapters 1 and 2 of Colossians), in fellowship, and enjoying a tasty and nutritious meal. And we were all together, in Christ, who is our All in all. Glory to His Name! That is, He is our All in all for those who have believed on Christ Jesus and have received Him (John 1:12-13), by being "born-again" as Jesus had said we must all be, to be "saved", to see the "kingdom of God" (John 3:3). And we have been, and are being led by the goodness of God to repent of our sins (Romans 2:4) and turn to Him for the forgiveness of our sins, and to then live according to God's will and His ways, through the guiding of the Holy Spirit and according to God's Word. That is then, for us, the teachings of Christ Jesus, as HE IS the Word of God. All so that we may be a part of the family of God, as we are intended to be "One in Christ" (John 17), Who is our All in all!

Jesus' teachings, we can read about in the books of Matthew, Mark, Luke and John and are then reiterated and expounded upon by His apostles in the books of Acts through Revelation. We are now called to live, as children of God, not according to the "Old Covenant" that God had with Israel, according to what is called the "Mosaic law", we are now called to live according to the "New Covenant" that is in and through Christ Jesus our Savior and Lord! After Jesus had been crucified on a cross and had risen from the dead, He gave the apostles and then now even to us, His "Great Commission", saying "All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth. Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age." (Matthew 28:18-20) Summing up what is Jesus' teachings is of what Jesus said was the "Great Commandments" of God: to love God with all of our heart, soul, strength, and mind and to love others as ourselves. (Mark 12:30-31) Then, as Jesus said, "On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets." (Matthew 22:40) Combining the Great Commandments with the Great Commission gives us the phrase that we are "sharing and showing the love and the gospel of Christ Jesus", as God through Christ is using each of us, right now, as He is building His eternal kingdom, through Christ Jesus, for His glory, honor, and praise!

The second reason we are revisiting the topic of Christ Jesus being our All in all is because HE IS! Jesus read from the book of Isaiah saying, "The Spirit of the Lord is upon Me, because He has anointed Me to preach the gospel to the poor; He has sent Me to heal the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed; to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord." (John 14:18-19)

Henceforth, we are not merely following the teachings of a prophet from God. Christ Jesus is presently gathering His sheep together to be one in wholeness in Him! As Jesus stated, "The thief does not come except to steal, and to kill, and to destroy. I have come that they may have life, and that they may have it more abundantly [peri-ssos: way beyond what you can see or imagine]. I am the Good Shepherd. The Good Shepherd gives His life for the sheep." (John 10:10-11) That has a two-fold meaning. He gave His life for us on the cross, shedding His blood for the remission of our sins, taking our sins upon Himself, and He gives of His life, that we may partake of Him, presently and forever (communion). Jesus also said to His disciples, and He is now saying to us, "Abide [meno: abide, continue, dwell, remain] in Me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in Me. I am the Vine, you are the branches. He who abides in Me, and I in him, bears much fruit; for without Me you can do nothing. If anyone does not abide in Me, he is cast out as a branch and is withered; and they gather them and throw them into the fire, and they are burned." (John 15:4-6) Abiding in Christ, what does that mean? Jesus said, "If you love Me, keep My commandments. And I will pray the Father, and He will give you another Helper, that He may abide with you forever—the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees Him nor knows Him; but you know Him, for He dwells with you and will be in you. I will not leave you orphans; I will come to you." (John 14:15-18) Right after that, "Judas (not Iscariot) said to Him, "Lord, how is it that You will manifest Yourself to us, and not to the world?" Jesus answered and said to him, "If anyone loves Me, he will keep My Word; and My Father will love him, and We will come to him and make Our home with him. He who does not love Me does not keep My words; and the word which you hear is not Mine but the Father's who sent Me." (John 14:22-24) That is then Communion with Christ (Greek koinonia: in fellowship, sharing, contribution, participation).

Regarding then that union we have in Christ, loving Him, loving others, abiding in Him and keeping His Word, the Apostle Paul used the analogy that we are the body of Christ, and He is the Head, and we are "joined and knit together by what every joint supplies, according to the effective working by which every part does its share, causes growth of the body for the edifying [oikodome: building up] of itself in LOVE." (Ephesians 4:16) That all comes from Christ Jesus, our Savior and Lord! The Apostle Paul warned the church at Colosse, of the false teaching of gnosticism, "(from Greek gnosis, meaning knowledge). This false teaching assigned to Christ a place subordinate to the true Godhead, and undervalued the uniqueness and completeness of His redemptive work. [It all breaks down into nothing of value without the RELATIONSHIP that we have with God through the redemptive work of Christ-as we are restored into a fellowship with God. Otherwise, it just becomes what has been termed theosophy, to where one seeks a "deeper spiritual reality and that direct contact with that reality can be established through intuition, meditation, revelation, or some other state transcending normal human consciousness."¹ Aka the "New Age Movement", and other esoteric, mystery religion teachings] [Gnosticism] insisted that between a holy God and this earth a host of beings, angels, etc., formed a bridge, of which host Christ was a member. This system included the worship of angels (v. 18) [and praying to saints] and a false asceticism (vv. 20-22 [extreme self-denial]). [Regarding the praying to anyone but God, we are reminded in Hebrews 4:15-16 that, "we do not have a High Priest [Christ Jesus] who cannot sympathize with our weaknesses, but was in all points tempted as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore come boldly to the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy and find grace to help in time of need."] For all these errors, the apostle [Paul] had one remedy, a knowledge (epignosis, that is, full knowledge, 1:9-10;3:10) of the fullness of God in Jesus Christ. Paul is not afraid of wisdom, or knowledge, and refers to them frequently, but he does insist that the knowledge be according to divine revelation [according to the Truth of the Word]. His devastating answer to this false teaching is in 1:19 and 2:9, in which the Lord is revealed as the one in whom dwells "all the fullness of the Godhead bodily." The word "fullness" (Greek pleroma) is the very word Gnosticism used for the entire host of intermediary beings between God and humanity. The incarnate Lord, crucified, risen, and ascended is the only Mediator between God and humanity (1 Tim. 2:5)."² [John 3:16-17] Jesus isn't a part of the bridge between God and mankind, He IS the Bridge! As Jesus stated, " I AM the Way, the Truth, and the Life. No one comes to the Father except through Me." (John 14:6) Likewise, the Apostle Peter testified to that when he preached after Jesus had risen from the dead and after the day of Pentecost, that we can read about in Acts, he said, "Nor is there salvation in any other, for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved." (Acts 4:12) "He who believes in the Son of God has the witness in himself; he who does not believe God has made Him a liar, because he has not believed the testimony that God has given of His Son. And this is the testimony: that God has given us eternal life, and this life is in His Son. He who has the Son has life; he who does not have the Son of God does not have life." (1 John 5:10-12) Let us reread Colossians 1:

[Colossians 1:1-8 (Greeting)]

Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, to the saints and faithful brethren in Christ who are in Colosse [koh-loh-say]: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. [same greeting in Ephesians] We give thanks to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you, since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of your love for all the saints; because of the hope which is laid up for you in heaven, of which you heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel, which has come to you, as it has also in all the world, and is bringing forth fruit, as it is also among you since the day you heard and knew the grace of God in truth; as you also learned from Epaphras [likely the original church planter], our dear fellow servant, who is a faithful minister of Christ on your behalf, who also declared to us your love in the Spirit.

[Colossians 1:9-18 (Preeminence of Christ)]

For this reason we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to ask that you may be [1] filled with the knowledge of His will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding; that [2] you may walk worthy of the Lord [1&2=Romans 12:1-2], [3] fully pleasing Him, [4] being fruitful in every good work [fruit of the Spirit] [5] and increasing in the knowledge of God; [6] strengthened with all might, according to His glorious power, for all patience and longsuffering with joy [not so we go out and dominate people]; [7] giving thanks to the Father who has qualified us to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in the light. He has delivered us from the power of darkness [1 Peter 2:9] and conveyed us into the kingdom of the Son of His love, in whom we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins. He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn over all creation. [first born=protokos: the unequivocal Sovereign over all creation³]. For by Him all things were created that are in heaven and that are on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers. All things were created through Him and for Him. [John 1:1-4, "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through Him, and without Him nothing was made that was made. In Him was life, and the life was the light of men."] And He is before all things, and in Him all things consist. And He is the head of the body, the church, who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in all things He may have the preeminence." [Just as Hebrews 1:2-4 says, God, "has in these last days spoken to us by His Son, whom He has appointed heir of all things, through whom also He made the worlds; who being the brightness of His glory and the express image of His person, and upholding all things by the word of His power, when He had by Himself purged our sins, sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, having become so much better than the angels, as He has by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they."

[Colossians 1:19-23 (Reconciled in Christ)]

For it pleased the Father that in Him all the fullness [pleroma] should dwell, and by Him to reconcile all things to Himself, by Him, whether things on earth or things in heaven, having made peace through the blood of His cross. And you, who once were alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now He has reconciled in the body of His flesh through death, to present you holy, and blameless, and above reproach in His sight— IF indeed you continue in the faith, grounded and steadfast, and are not moved away from the hope of the gospel which you heard, which was preached to every creature under heaven, of which I, Paul, became a minister.

[Colossians 1:24-29 (Sacrificial Service for Christ)]

I now rejoice in my sufferings for you, and fill up in my flesh what is lacking in the afflictions of Christ, for the sake of His body, which is the church, of which I became a minister according to the stewardship from God which was given to me for you, to fulfill the word of God, the mystery which has been hidden from ages and from generations, but now has been revealed to His saints. To them God willed to make known what are the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles: which is Christ in you [he is speaking to those who have believed on and received Christ], the hope of glory [for us to be in the glory of God and for us to be glorified together]. Him we preach, warning every man and teaching every man in all wisdom, that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus. To this end I also labor, striving according to His working which works in me mightily. [Striving=agonizomai: strive, struggle, fight, labor fervently; It is the word used by Paul in describing our walk of faith in Christ as the running of a race saying, "Do you not know that those who run in a race all run, but one receives the prize? Run in such a way that you may obtain it. And everyone who competes [agonizomai] for the prize is temperate [self-control] in all things. Now they [of the world] do it to obtain a perishable crown, but we for an imperishable crown." (1 Corinthians 9:24-25) It is the same word used by Jesus in saying, "Strive to enter through the narrow gate, for many, I say to you, will seek to enter and will not be able. When once the Master of the house has risen up and shut the door, and you begin to stand outside and knock at the door, saying, 'Lord, Lord, open for us,' and He will answer and say to you, 'I do not know you, where you are from,' then you will begin to say, 'We ate and drank in Your presence, and You taught in our streets.' But He will say, 'I tell you I do not know you, where you are from. Depart from Me, all you workers of iniquity.'" (Luke 13:24-27)

[Colossians 2:1-10 (Not Philosophy or Theosophy but Christ)]

For I want you to know what a great conflict I have for you and those in Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh, that their hearts may be encouraged, being knit together in love, and attaining to all riches of the full assurance of understanding, to the knowledge of the mystery of God, both of the Father and of Christ, in whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge. Now this I say lest anyone should deceive you with persuasive words. For though I am absent in the flesh, yet I am with you in spirit, rejoicing to see your good order and the steadfastness of your faith in Christ. As you therefore have received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in Him, rooted and built up [epi-oikodome:fullness of being built up] in Him and established in the faith, as you have been taught, abounding in it with thanksgiving. Beware lest anyone cheat you through philosophy and empty deceit, according to the tradition of men, according to the basic principles of the world, and not according TO CHRIST. For in Him dwells all the fullness [pleroma] of the Godhead bodily; and you are complete in Him, who is the head of all principality and power.

[Colossians 2:11-23 (Not Legalism but Christ)]

In Him you were also circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, by putting off the body of the sins of the flesh, by the circumcision of Christ, buried with Him in baptism, in which you also were raised with Him through faith in the working of God, who raised Him from the dead. And you, being dead in your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, He has made alive together with Him, having forgiven you all trespasses, having wiped out the handwriting of requirements that was against us, which was contrary to us. And He has taken it out of the way, having nailed it to the cross. Having disarmed principalities and powers, He made a public spectacle of them, triumphing over them in it. So let no one judge you in food or in drink, or regarding a festival or a new moon or sabbaths, which are a shadow of things to come, but the substance is of Christ. Let no one cheat you of your reward, taking delight in false humility and worship of angels, intruding into those things which he has not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind, and not holding fast to the Head [cling to Him, for He is your life-Deu. 30:20], from whom all the body, nourished and knit together by joints and ligaments, grows with the increase that is from God. Therefore, if you died with Christ from the basic principles of the world, why, as though living in the world, do you subject yourselves to regulations— “Do not touch, do not taste, do not handle,” which all concern things which perish with the using—according to the commandments and doctrines of men? These things indeed have an appearance of wisdom in self-imposed religion, false humility, and neglect of the body, but are of no value against the indulgence of the flesh. [James puts it this way, “God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble. Therefore submit to God. Resist the devil [anthistemi (anth-is-tay-mee): against(anti)-to stand] and he will flee from you. Draw near to God and He will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners; and purify your hearts, you double-minded.” (James 4:6b-8)] Abiding in Christ and practicing righteousness or not. Take your stand!

[Colossians 3:1-11 (Not Carnality but Christ)]

If then you were raised with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ is, sitting at the right hand of God. Set your mind on things above, not on things on the earth. For you died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is our life appears, then you also will appear with Him in glory. Therefore put to death your members which are on the earth: fornication, uncleanness, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry [anthistemi & agonizomai]. Because of these things the wrath of God is coming upon the sons of disobedience, in which you yourselves once walked when you lived in them. But now you yourselves are to put off all these: anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy language out of your mouth. Do not lie to one another, since you have put off the old man with his deeds, and have put on the new man who is renewed in knowledge according to the image of Him who created him [the new man], where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcised nor uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave nor free, but Christ is all and in all. [Colossians 3:12-17 (Character of the New Man)] Therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, put on tender mercies, kindness, humility, meekness, longsuffering; bearing with one another, and forgiving one another, if anyone has a complaint against another; even as Christ forgave you, so you also must do. But above all these things put on love, which is the bond of perfection. And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to which also you were called in one body; and be thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom, teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord. And whatever you do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through Him.

[Colossians 3:18-25 (The Christian Home)] Wives, submit to your own husbands, as is fitting in the Lord. Husbands, love your wives and do not be bitter toward them. Children, obey your parents in all things, for this is well pleasing to the Lord. Fathers, do not provoke your children, lest they become discouraged. Bondservants, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh, not with eyeservice, as men-pleasers, but in sincerity of heart, fearing God. And whatever you do, do it heartily, as to the Lord and not to men, knowing that from the Lord you will receive the reward of the inheritance; for you serve the Lord Christ. But he who does wrong will be repaid for what he has done, and there is no partiality.

[To close, in Paul's prayer in Ephesians, let us pray today, he said, "after I heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love for all the saints, do not cease to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers: that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give to you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of Him, the eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that you may know what is the hope of His calling [joint-heirs, reign with Him-JESUS!], what are the riches of the glory of His inheritance in the saints, and what is the exceeding greatness of His power toward us who believe, according to the working of His mighty power which He worked in Christ when He raised Him from the dead and seated Him at His right hand in the heavenly places, far above all principality and power and might and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this age but also in that which is to come. And He put all things under His feet, and gave Him to be head over all things to the church, which is His body, the fullness of Him who fills All in all." (Ephesians 1:15-23)] That we may know Him, put our trust in Him, and honor Him with our lives, in all that we say and do, in Christ Jesus we pray. AMEN.]
